

COUNCIL MAKES COMMITTEES WORK

Vine streets some time ago by W. A. McCormick, who has now submitted the cost at $10. 10 for the borough to take it over. The sever is at Newmyer avenue and Patch street. McCormick was of the opinion that the matter had hung fire long enough and that it ought to be either accepted or rejected. Millard thought it wouldn't be doing justice to act hastily. We should take action," said McCormick.

"I am referring it to the Street Committee three or four times."

The matter was referred to the Sewer Committee to be brought up at the next meeting.

Two petitions from South Side citizens were read, both asking for lights. The two corners where the lights are wanted, Franklin and Sycamore and Newmyer and Vine streets. Both petitions were referred to the Light Committee.

A communication from Postmaster A. E. Kurtz was read, in which he asked that a number of duplicate street names on both sides of the river be renamed. Mail is often delayed and misdirected owing to this. The post master suggested that the street names be retained on the West Side and the duplicate names on this side be renamed. The matter was referred to the Street Committee.

The West Side band sent a note of thanks to Council for the privilege of using the West Side house as a band room. The report of the Board of Health published some time ago was read. An incorporation of $1,000 was voted. The report was accepted and placed on file.

An arc light was ordered to be placed at the corner of Newmyer and Rue streets.

The following Councilmen were present: Millard, J. T. Husted, Hay, Butler, Morris, Davis, Parker, Clegg, Jackson, Decker, G. C. Harten, Fred Hayes, Stover, Breanna, Grant, McCormick and Hogg. The last four named came late.

The reports from the treasurer, the Budgets and the frenemy were read and accepted. Bills totalling $6,049.30 were drawn, one each to J. H. Hogg, the West Penn Electric Company and the Connellsville Water Company for $100.00.

Burgess Evans' report for the month of January is as follows: Number of arrests 88; cash received from fines, $125.50; discharged, 7; cash from license, $83; committed, 62; cash received from other sources, $2; total $125.50. Paid out, $2. Amount turned over by bank to the treasurer, $105.50.

Through Treasurer reported the following balances:

General fund, $5,801.12; sewer fund, $2,125.01; refunding fund, $5,111.21; sinking fund, $901.31; West Side sinking fund, $90.25; library fund, $241.68; frenemy fund, $125.00.

Resolutions were passed, his signature to approval of the "caused must" ordinance immediately after Council adjourned. This is the first time in recent years an ordinance has met with such prompt approval upon the part of the chief executive of the borough.

YOUR KIDNEYS NEED CLEANING

Every Person Healthy or Unhealthy, Ought to Give the Kidneys a Thorough Cleaning Right Now.

You clean your teeth daily. You wouldn't think of doing otherwise, and yet the teeth are not one tenth so important to health, strength and a long life as the kidneys.

Do you know that the kidneys are little engines in our bodies, through which every drop of blood in the body passes again and again?

And when the kidneys become clogged they are unable to strain the impure matter from the blood, and it stays in the blood and causes disease in various parts of the body. That's why you feel tired and weak. Disease is caused by urea held in the blood, and urea gets into the blood only when the kidneys are clogged up and are unable to properly strain the impurities.

Just go to A. Graham & Co., of Connellsville, or A. Graham & Son, of Scottdale, and get a bottle of Thompson's Balsamic, the most valuable kidney, liver and bladder regulator the world has ever known, take it regularly for two weeks and all the impure matter in your kidneys will pass out through the bladder, and your kidneys will be clean and your health in any kidney can be restored.

Thompson's Balsamic is guaranteed by Graham & Co. of Connellsville and S. A. Lowe & Co. of Scottdale to cure all diseases of the kidneys, liver and bladder or money back. It is a wonderful tonic and blood purifier, and will bring the glow of health to the cheeks of the sick in a short time, no costs and $1.00, a bottle All druggists.

GEORGE COCHRAN SWAMPED BY BASEBALL APPLICANTS

W. C. Wilson, in town yesterday, consulted holder of local franchise.

W. C. Wilson, who has the Uniontown franchise of the Ohio and Pennsylvania League, returned from Dawson this morning where he had a long conference with George Cochran, who, with W. C. Herrington, holds the Connellsville franchise.

Cochran has for the past few weeks been deluged with letters from agents from ball parks throughout the country who wish a managerial or player's berth with the Celors. One letter was received from "Sunny" Price, who played here a few years ago. Sunny is in the Texas league and says he can buy the rights from his club for $2,000. He wants to be manager of the Connellsville club.

Wilson thinks well of the situation here, but says that the future of baseball and in other towns in the league depends on whether all the clubs can be swing into line. Wilson goes to Columbia today to confer there. The outcome is bright there, he says. If it is suitable, that can be secured.

The Philadelphian took the lead in the contest last year. At the meeting there were about 20 members in each society.

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of these experimental farmers, who put green sprouts on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The question of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations.

It is only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment. Any family man, however, can afford to keep a cow for a year or more. The result of his experiment will be a healthy, strong animal.

It contains neither opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper.

Don't let a dealer delude you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

GOOD NEWS FOR YOU!

We are going to give furniture away absolutely free! Don't buy a cent's worth of household furnishings until you have investigated this startling proposition. It comes from a house that has never told you anything but the truth.

SAVE THIS SHEET!

Even if you are not ready to take advantage of our big special offer just now, you'll want to do so later on. Save this advertisement so you'll know just exactly what you can get. Tell your neighbors about it. They will be delighted.

Something New and Important

This is our first public announcement of a tremendous plan which we have been working on for months. It is a plan whereby we are actually going to give furniture to our customers absolutely free of all charge. Such a proposition coming from an ordinary store would seem important enough; but coming from a house which has enjoyed your perfect confidence for years, it takes on added importance which cannot be told in words. The plan is simple:—We are going to give you choice new furniture the value of which is limited only by the amount of other goods that you purchase of us. The more you buy, the finer and more costly will be the goods that we give you with our compliments. It's a straight business proposition, founded on true and sensible lines. Look at the partial list of free gifts and you will gain some idea of what this means to you. And remember the prices on our regular stocks are always the lowest that can be quoted. Nothing will be added to these prices—not a red cent. There will be no "string" to our offer, nothing but a clean, square, dignified deal all the way through. And it will apply to cash as well as credit purchases, don't forget that.

WEDNESDAY EVENG., FEB. 7, 1912.

Democratic Harmony.
The Democrats are having a hard time this fall. Professor Wilson is rattling around the country with the vain idea that he is a presidential possibility. He won't even get the nomination. Keep an eye on our old friend, William Jennings Bryan. Even the dismantled and disgruntled Progressives are in line with him on some things, but how they expect to do them is a mystery to the sober observer of politics. The Greensburg Tribune sizes up their condition very accurately as follows:

The Democrats of Pennsylvania are not in a position to do much. The State Chairman is now acting where in the past one was an abundance. The conflicting Chairmen have notified the committee on collecting terms just what must be done with the conflicting ballots. The Commissioners have referred the conflicting orders to a committee which will determine what decision is reached an appeal will be taken and the "harmony" in Democratic circles will be extended and promoted.

In the meantime it is expected that the "harmony" in the State is to be extended to Westmoreland county where the endorsed candidate for National Legislator is nominated just as an evidence that "harmony" is not controlled by any leet.

The facts are that Democratic harmony is getting oppressive.

The Republican party may have their differences, but compared with the Democrats, they are united and aggressive.

The hopeful Democrats are due to get the worst licking they have had in years.

Dream or Sleep.

It is the old suggestion of the survival of the fittest with the exception that man has it within his power to determine which is most fit for preservation. The Washington Observer says:

The sheep industry in Washington county is in decline. A slight rise in the county's industry has practically eliminated sheep raising in this county. Not only in this county, but the greater part of the state.

Farmer, Washington, and Greene, the sheep industry has seen its best days and no longer are the hillsides dotted with sheep.

At the court house office at the court house, it is set out which reveals facts which should be interesting to every farmer. In fact, the country paid every farmer a little extra for each animal killed by dogs. In 1910, the amount paid to farmers for the same purpose was $2,472,000 and in 1910, the amount paid was $1,300,000. The amount of damage done to the sheep industry in this county was over nine thousand dollars. This means that nearly two thousand sheep were killed.

On the page of another document in the Controller's office in date with it states that $1,000 should have been paid to the farmers for the same purpose. But this sum is diminished by at least 40 per cent on account of exonerations and "lost dogs." Of course, the amount of damage done to the sheep industry is good, but dogs was sufficient to pay for the damage done by the worthless.

Washington is hopelessly lost. In the first of sheep raising counties, Reports from Washington county, the leading sheep raising county in the state, reveal the fact that the industry is in decline. The reason is that the price of the hams made by the dogs.

If it were not for the factor in wool derived from sheep raising in this place, the industry would be more profitable than raising sheep.

It is time the cause of the sheep was being taken up by the sheep raisers and the community in general.

Charism has been revived in the House, and with a monstrous influx of the Democratic party in the city, but since they have obtained control of the House, they have suddenly discovered that the Reed rules are perfectly proper when they are needed to gain something through. Consistency, thy name is not Democracy.

The Postmaster of Connellsville has down certain rates for Jimmy Valentine, but the chances are that Capital will cheerfully ignore them.

It looks as if it might have been profitable and wise for the West Wheel school to have paid calls along some of its 50-foot embankments.

Wheelers parents want to be assured that Wheeler school house will not tumble into the depths of the old Wheeler mine taking their children with it. The request is reasonable.

Canned music is to be regulated in Connellsville by official rules.

The formation of a County Supervisors' Association is advocated by the Waynesburg Almoners. Such an association would be an excellent thing for Greene county, especially if it resulted in the absolute and effectual abolition of the antiquated and absurd system of working out road taxes.

The D. & O. police did a great nabbing business last year.

In spite of the solemn and reported warnings of the press, the victims of the Open Grids are multiplying.

Somerset county springs a new mining town upon the politicians now and then.

Paris green is a poor poison route.

James J. Hill will be called before the Stanley Committee. His information will not be gained from the reminiscences of book-writing and muckraking.

Alaska will add materially to our coal supply, but at best the present rate of consumption bids fair to leave little of it after the ensuing century.

Nova Scotia is something of a coal producer, too.

Colonel Roosevelt is not saying a word. There is really nothing for him to say. He said it all four years ago.

The Insurgents are reported as charging Roosevelt with having "betrayed" them. Now when and where and how?

Assertions that T. Roosevelt is a candidate are numerous and some of them very positive, but in the meantime, T. R. says nothing.

Why a License?

Chartered Mail.

A press dispatch from Harrisburg states that the high price of butter has caused a rush in the past month the dairy and food division issued 773 licenses during the month of January, 1912, 19 boarding houses and 12 restaurant licenses. The fee from these licenses brought a revenue of $1,739.20 during the month.

A pathetic feature attached to this statement from the fact that a benevolent Commonwealth compels poor people to pay $1,739.20 more than is necessary to live on. The tax on the extortions of the Skin bather trust, to say nothing of the higher prices to which the knowledge of law and lawyers that he afterward used to hold advantage in his famous novels, young Dickens became a law reporter.

Cut This Out

Resolve that Breaks a Gold in a Day

"From your druggist get half ounce of Concentrated Pine compound and two ounces of Glycogen. Take these in a glass of water, mix and put them into a box of good tobacco, smoke with tea in doses of one to two ten minutes after each meal and it becomes a simple and effective medicine to age. But be sure to get only the genuine Pine compound. Concentrated Pine, each half ounce, costs 10¢. Seal it in a screw-top case. If your druggist does not have it he will quickly supply you. Many physicians prescribe quantity and cheaper, but it is really expensive. This formula comes from a well known physician who has been first published here six years ago and local druggists say it has been in great demand ever since."

NEWS OF A DAY OVER SCOTTDAL

Man and Child Hurled Down Stairs Together Last Evening.

J. F. HARDY TIPPED ON STEPS

Well Known Band Leader Had Narrow Escape in Exciting Tumble, Scottsdale Ministers Hold Meeting. Other Notes of News.

Special to The Courier.

SCOTTDAL, Feb. 7.—Frank Hardy and his little daughter, Addie, aged four years, were victims of a painful accident, that might have resulted in much worse injuries than it did. Frank, who had called to dinner last evening and started down stairs with his little girl, slipped on the floor, caught his heel caught on one of the upper steps and he tumbled forward, pulling the entire length of the stairs, lightly clutching the child and trying to keep from falling on its body. Mr. Hardy was uninjured and a large red spot on his chin showed where he came suddenly into contact with the wood work. The child seemed to be uninjured and sat up with the family. Soon after that she began to complain and Dr. W. H. Petter was called in and discovered that the little girl's collar bone was broken. Mr. Hardy's collar bone is broken and is being treated at the hospital.

ARMY OF WITNESSES.

There was a veritable army of witnesses left on the first train for Greensburg this morning, being called in the case of Mrs. Elizabeth Newcomer, widow of Frank Newcomer, who was killed in a collision with a train at the intersection of Main and Market streets, Oct. 10, last October, during the big fire scene in town. First shot had called a great number of witnesses. The fire department was almost covered by subpoenas for the Commandant, while nearly every commanding officer, including the Adjutant General, was called as a witness for one side or the other.

Quincy McCrum Denies Passing Hugos Money on Bunker Jex—Democratic Club Holds a Rehearsal. Who Took the Dog Collar?

Special to The Courier.
MT. PLEASANT, Feb. 7.—Quincy McCrum wishes to state that he did not pass Hugo's money as was reported, but that he had something that proved to him a Spanish advertisement and presented it to Foreign Exchange Bunker Jex for identification as money or whatever it might be, and that Mr. Jex told him there was only $150 in the bag, which he paid him $15 for the bill, which he readily accounted for to be good money he had given Jex. Little note was returned to Jex from the New York exchange marked his happy days. That Jex had come to him personally he would have been glad to repay Jex but instead Jex came to the Lyric theater, McCrum's place of employment, and related a scene involving suddenly the part of his employer W. B. Smith.

Prescription that Soon Knocks Rheumatism

The only logical treatment for rheumatism is through the blood. The poisons that settle in muscles, joints and bones are absorbed and dissolved and expelled from the system or there can be no relief. This prescription is now being used by thousands of working women all over the country. Hundreds of the worst cases were cured by this method. It is a safe, simple drugless, yet one ounce of Tonsilene compound (in original sealed package) and a few drops of oil of Toluol will do the work. Take these two ingredients home and put them into a half pint of water. Boil this for a few minutes and take a tablespoonful before each meal and at bedtime. Results come the first day. The doctor says, "If you have Tonsilene tincture in stock he will get it in a few hours from his wholesale druggist." One ounce of Tonsilene is a safe patent medicine instead of this tablet on having the genuine Tonsilene. It is a safe, simple drugless, yet one ounce

The Great Semi-Annual Occasion Waited for by Hundreds of Women Will Open Thursday, at 8 A. M.

The Semi-Annual White Sale

is one of the few sales that is famous all through Fayette and Westmoreland counties, it's known and eagerly looked for, not only by Connellsville women, also by hundreds of women within a radius of 20 miles. Thousands of snowy white undergarments. Tens of hundreds of yards of embroideries, dozens of waists, eases of white curtains, hundreds of dozens of corsets, unlimited yards of muslin and table linens, toweling, etc., have been arriving daily for the past 30 days, all specially purchased from manufacturers who saw the mutual advantage in helping us to make this the most eclipsing White Sale ever known to Connellsville shoppers. We could tell you the old hackneyed story made tiresome by many repetitions of the unusual quality of these undergarments, but that we do not think important, as we do not at any time believe in placing garments on sale unless they measure up to our ideals of quality and make. The only important factor we believe in this case is to quote the prices and to state that we have immense quantities of everything advertised. You'll get what you come for and generally see something else you can use, so come and bring your friends, gladden their hearts with the truest white goods bargains you have ever had the fortune to partake.

FRECKLES

By Gene Stratton-
Porter

COPYRIGHT, 1904, BY DOUBLEDAY, PAGE & CO.

Like Lightning, and Duncan has no extra horse, so I'm thinking you'd best get me one, or perhaps a wheel would be better. I used to do extra work for the horse doctor, and he would let me take his bicycle to ride about the place. And at times the head nurse would lend me his for an hour. A wheel would cost less and be faster than a horse and would take less care."

As they walked up to the cabin together McLean insisted on another guard, but Freckles was stubbornly set on fighting his battle alone. He made one mental condition. If the Little Chickens series was going to give up the Little Chickens series he would field to the second guard solely for the sake of her work and the presence of the angel in the Lumberlost.

With McLean it was a case of letting his sober, bitter judgment be overridden by the boy he was growing to love that he could not bear to cross him and to have Freckles keep his trust and win him back to him before long.

The next morning McLean brought the wheel, and Freckles took it down to the trail to test it. It was new, creaky, with as little as possible to catch in buried ridges, and in every way the best of its kind. Freckles went skimming around the trail on it a preliminary trial before he locked it in his case and started his minute examination of his line on foot. He glanced around his room as he left it. On the moss in front of the prettiest screen lay the angel's bat.

He went and picked it up, oh, so carefully, easing it out to carry it over to his case, where he hung it on the sibling handle bar of the new wheel and locked it in among his treasures. Then he went out to the trail with a new look on his face. He was not in the least afraid or anything that morning. He felt he was the veriest Daniel, and all his lions seemed weak and harmless.

Black Jack was not a man to give up his purpose or to banish the bat swept from his hand by a bullet and bear it weakly. Moreover, Wessner would cling to his revenge.

At the sight of Freckles the men threw up their hats and cheered. McLean shook hands with him warmly, but big Duncan gathered him into his arms and hugged him like a bear and choked over a few words of praise. The gang drove in and finished felling the tree.

When the last wagon rolled away McLean sat down on the stump and Freckles told the story he was aching to tell. The boss could scarcely believe his senses. Also he was greatly disappointed.

"I have been almost praying all the way over, Freckles," he said, "that you would have some evidence by which we could arrest those fellows and get them out of our way, but this will never do. They haven't helped you save me from the tree and my anger as well. Going about the country as she does, the Bird Woman could never be expected to testify against them."

"No, indeed; nor the angel either, sir," said Freckles.

"The angel?" queried the astonished McLean.

The boss listened in silence while Freckles told of the coming and clutching of the angel.

"I know her father well," said McLean, "and I have often seen her. You are right, she is a beautiful young girl. I do not understand why her father risks such a jewel in this place."

"It's darling! It because she is such a jewel, sir," said Freckles eagerly. "Why, she's trusting a rattlesnake to rattle before it strikes her, and, of course, she thinks she can trust mankind as well. The man isn't mad that wouldn't lay down the life of his son for her. She don't need any care, for she is the prettiest girl I ever saw in a band of howling savages."

"Did you say she handled one of the revolvers?" asked McLean.

"She scared all the breath out of me body," admitted Freckles. "Seems that her father had taught her to shoot. The Bird Woman told her distinctly to lie low and blaze away high, just to keep scared them. The瘦弱的 little thing threw them right out into the west road, splitting road like hill and clipping all about the bonds and heels of them."

"Now, will they come back?" asked McLean.

"Of course," said Freckles. "At least Black Jack will. Wessner might not dare the place. And the next time—" Freckles hesitated.

"What?"

"It will just be a question of who shoots first and stretches!"

"Then the only thing for us to do is to double the guard and get the gang here the first minute possible. As soon as we find that we have the rarest of the stuff out below we will come. The fact is in many cases until it is filled it is hard to tell what tree will prove to be. It won't do to leave you here longer alone. Jack has been shooting twenty years to your one, and it would be nice that you fire no match for him. Which of the girls would you like best to bare with you?"

"No one, sir," said Freckles emphatically. "Next time is where I run. I won't try to fight them alone. I'll just be getting wind of them and then make tracks for you. I'll need to come splashing toward town. He knew very well where the angel lived. He had passed her home many times, and he had passed it again without even taking his eyes from the street, steering straight for her father's place of business.

Carrying the bat, Freckles passed a long line of clerks and at the door of the private office asked to see the proprietor. When he had waited a moment a tall, spare, keen-eyed man faced him and in brisk, nervous tones asked, "How can I serve you, sir?"

Freckles handed him the package and answered: "By delivering to your daughter this hat, which she was after leaving at the place the other day when she went off in a hurry. And by saying to her and the Bird Woman that I'm more thankful than I'll be having words to express for the brave things they were doing for me. I'm McLean's Lumberlost guard, sir."

CHAPTER XL

THE MAN OF AFFAIRS.

"WHY don't you take it your self?" questioned the man of affairs.

Freckles' clear gray eyes met those of the angel's father squarely, and he said, "If you were in my place would you take it to her yourself?"

"No, I would not," said that gentle man quickly.

"They why not why I did not?" came Freckles' laudable query.

"They me!" said the angel's father. He stared at the package, then at the tilted cap of the boy and then at the package again and muttered, "Excuse me."

Freckles bowed.

"It would be favoring me greatly if you would deliver the hat and the message. Good morrow, sir," and he turned away.

"One minute," said the angel's father. "Suppose I give you permission to return this hat in person and make your own acknowledgments?"

Freckles stood one moment thinking.

"Why should you, sir? You are the heart of the kingdom, and the cathedral is God's work, not yours. You only found it and opened the door after he had it completed. Come get a cool drink before you start back. It won't take a minute, and you can ride fast enough to make up for it."

Freckles looked into the beautiful face of the angel in sheer wonderment. Did she truly mean it? Would she walk down that street with him, crippled, bony, in men's clothing?

"You like it, too," said Freckles.

"Yes," said the angel; "I love it. Your room is a little place right out of the heart of England, and the cathedral is God's work, not yours. You only found it and opened the door after he had it completed. Come get a cool drink before you start back. It won't take a minute, and you can ride fast enough to make up for it."

Freckles' thoughts were all these miles about here will follow in and out on the cheap clover. Then the landowners will dig a few ditches, build some fires, and in two summers more the Lumberlost will be in corn and pasture.

"You like it, too," said Freckles.

GAMES THIS WEEK.
Tonight—Charleroi at Connellsville.
Thursday—Connellsville at Uniontown; South Side at Johnstown.
Friday—Johnstown at Connellsville;
Uniontown at Charleroi.
Saturday—Uniontown at South Side.

The score last night was 30-19. In whose favor? Well, it's sufficient to remark that the Cokers were away from home. They got everything but points. Before Davis was going to put the whole team off the floor, or something like that, for tripping. Of course, fans who have watched the Cokers can after game know that he wouldn't do anything like that—if the referee was looking. In any event, Johnny Fraund must have told Davis the Cokers were tripping. Never yet saw a Coker try that stunt while the referee had a chance to catch him. This man Fraund needs to be suspended. Our referee is too many mistakes, make him a midget.

The field goals stood eight to five. Rummel and Brady shot wild from the free line, so the field goals settled it. After the first 10 minutes the Cokers became spectators while South Side made the points, so the Pittsburgh word painters say in the morning paper. Here's the lineup for the morning paper: South Side (30) Connellsville (19); Frankel forward Kummert; Lt. Blenc forward Dark Penning center Cavanaugh; Lt. Steele guard Boggs; Brady guard Lyle Field goals—Frankel 3, Lt. Steele 4, Lt. Steele, Kummert 2, Cavanaugh, Boggs 1. Foul goals—Brady 11 out of 27. Score end of first half—South Side 12; Connellsville 8. Referee—Davis.

A Few Notes.
Tonight is the one game this week the spectators get in for a dime. Cut rates do not apply to Friday's contest with Johnstown.

Johnstown and Charleroi played last night and only 22 souls were called by Referee Touch, 13 on the Cherubs and 9 on the Jungs. Just about a lousy record.

Pretty good one comes from Wheeling. The management there has its lines out for a third baseman who can hit and has a great whip. His name is "Red" Hilton. "Scrappy Bill" Joy's isn't dead yet. Or why not Bill Birmingham?

The Pittsburgh papers had the Central league standing right—once.

Because the attendance has increased at such a rapid rate during the past week, the Johnstown directors have reconsidered their intention to have the team transferred. The big crowds of last week have enabled them to get over a couple of rocky spots and has persuaded them to give up the idea of transferring the Indians.

PHILIMINAY GAME

A. A. CLARKE GUARANTEES RHEUMA FOR RHEUMATISM

What chyme does any sufferer take when A. A. Clarke is guaranteed to banish rheumatism, lameness, gout and kidney ailments, or money back?

Who doesn't investigate this offer, talk to A. A. Clarke about it. RHEUMA sure does drive rheumatic poison from the system, helps swollen joints to normal and relieves agony in two days.

People so crippled with rheumatism that they could not walk have been absolutely freed from the iron grasp of the demon, rheumatism, with less than half a dozen 50-cent bottles. A few hours after the first dose, RHEUMA begins to dissolve the uric acid and drive it from the body through the natural channels.

Everybody can afford RHEUMA—the price is only 50 cents a bottle, and the dose is small.

HAT FOR SOUTHERN WEAR.

The straw hats shown for Southern wear are always interesting, fascinating, as they do, the styles for summer.

The one sketched is a plain pithama with a rolling brim. The trimming consists of a black taffeta ribbon, which passes around the crown and through the brim at the back; the ribbon is gathered and held in place by the ribbon. Then the ribbon is tied in a bow under the brim at the back.

COUGHED FIVE YEARS

Did you ever cough for five weeks or five months? Then just think how distressing it must be to have a cough hang on for five years.

Mrs. Mann of New York City knows something about this. She says she's been coughing almost three years now, and it's still there. She's been taking almost impossible for me to get rid of. Various other remedies have given little if any relief, but before I had taken half a bottle of Vinol I noticed a great improvement as I longer coughed at night.

"Now my bronchial trouble has quite disappeared," she says, "and I think this is due to Vinol."

The reason cough strips did Mrs.

Mann no good is that they do not and cannot build up the body and enrich the blood. That is what you have to do to get rid of stubborn bronchial cough, and Vinol will do it for you.

Vinol contains the corrective, healing properties of the bark of the cinchona (chinchona), root and tonic iron.

We guarantee it to be delicious in taste and to satisfy you with its medicinal effects.

Graham & Co., Druggists. Vinol is sold in West Connellsville by Dr. H. Harrington, Druggist.
